Current Academic Rank: Professor
Primary Department: Department of Computer Information Systems
Citizenship: USA

HIGHER EDUCATION

Institutional:

The University of Texas at Austin
Major: Management Information Systems & Statistics
Specialization: Computer Management Information Systems
Degree: Ph.D., 1979

The University of Texas at Austin
Major: Information Systems
Specialization: Evaluation & Quantitative Methods
Degree: M.A., 1978

Tel Aviv University, Tel Aviv, Israel
Degree: B.A., 1975

EXPERIENCE

Academic:

1991 to date Professor, Computer Information Systems, University of Miami

1988- 1989 Visiting Professor, University of Southern California, Los Angeles, California

1984 to 1991 Associate Professor of Management Information Systems, Department of Management Science & Computer Information Systems, University of Miami

1985, 1987   Visiting Lecturer of Information Systems, Tel Aviv
Summer   University, Tel Aviv, Israel.

1980 – 1984 Assistant Professor of Management Information Systems, Department of Management Science & Computer Information Systems, University of Miami, Coral Gables, Florida.

1979 – 1980 Assistant Professor at the University of San Francisco, San Francisco, California.

Non-Academic/Consulting Experience:

1990 – Present Executive training seminars and workshops; Expert Systems, Internet Security & E-Commerce, and E-Learning.

1982-1990 Continuing Education Training in Information Technology

1980 – Present Instructor for executive training seminars and workshops.

1982   EDP Audit Consultant - Belcher Oil, Miami, Florida.

1982   Computer Consultant for Legal Services, Miami, Florida.

1981 – 1982   Co-Principal Investigator "Large Scale Implementation of a Time Oriented Vehicle Scheduling Model," University Research Project Grant awarded by Urban Mass Transit   Administration, Department of Transportation.

1981   Computer Consultant to University of Miami, School of Medicine Faculty Development Center.

                 Flowers Industries' 1981 Business/Academic Exchange Program, Corporate Headquarters, Thomasville, Georgia.

1980   Systems Analyst/Programmer for APPLE Computer Foundation grant, awarded to College of Business Administration,   University of San Francisco.

                 Grants Consultant to the University of Pacific Dental School, San Francisco, California.

1982 – 1989 Continuing Education Training in Business Microcomputers, University of Miami Executive and Special Programs.
